

calendar year. Numbers appear in January, April, July, and October.

Scope

The editor of LRTS, with the assistance of an editorial board, strives to achieve a balance among the articles published in the journal so that the interests of each of the sections of ALCTS (Acquisitions, Cataloging and Classification, Collection Management and Development, Preservation and Reformatting, Serials) is represented in the journal. Articles on technology, management, and education, e.g., are appropriate to the journal when the application of these is to issues of interest to practitioners and researchers working in collection development and technical services. The scope of the articles published in LRTS is also guided by the Mission and Priorities Statement adopted by the ALCTS Board of Directors in 1990.

Content

The content of LRTS is to include:

1. Articles that further the advancement of knowledge by reporting the results of research or other scholarly activity

2. Periodic literature review essays that discuss issues and trends
3. Notes that report unique or evolving technical processes
4. Notes that report unique or evolving research methods
5. Substantive book reviews of new publications
6. A brief, factual, annual statement of the association's accomplishments

LRTS is not an appropriate forum for brief reports on new products, new services, or other current news items.
