

Acknowledgments

The 2007-2008 Public Library Funding & Technology Access Study was supported by a diverse research team, including principal investigators John Carlo Bertot, Denise M. Davis and Charles R. McClure; along with Peggy Barber, Larra Clark, Elise Jensen, Susan Thomas, Linda Wallace and Carla B. Wright.

The study team wishes to express their gratitude to the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and the American Library Association (ALA) for funding the Public Library

Funding & Technology Access Study; state library staff; the study advisory committee; public librarians who completed the survey and participated in focus groups and site visits; and staff at the American Library Association and the Florida State University Information Institute.
